

Summary of our Privacy Policy

Black Creek Investment Management (“Black Creek”) is committed to protecting your privacy. We collect, use, and disclose your personal information in accordance with the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act and Quebec’s Act Respecting the Protection of Personal Information in the Private Sector.

What information we collect

We collect personal information needed to provide products and services to you, such as your contact details, information to verify your identity, your financial transactions, and suitability information.

How we use your information

We use your information to open and manage your account with us, provide services to you relating to your investment with us, meet legal, regulatory and anti-money laundering requirements, and to communicate with you.

Sharing and safeguards

We share your information with third parties who support our operations, such as with the administrator, custodian and transfer agent of the Black Creek Funds, and with regulators and legal authorities as required. We employ physical, technological and administrative safeguards to protect your information against unauthorized access or misuse.

Certain service providers process your information outside Canada. We ensure they protect your information to Canadian standards.

Your rights

You have the right to access and correct your personal information, and to withdraw your consent for us to collect, hold and use your personal information. Withdrawing consent may mean we can no longer provide our products and services to you.

Contact us

If you have a question about our Privacy Policy, have concerns about your personal information, or wish to access or correct your personal information, you can contact your client relationship manager whose contact information can be found at <https://bcim.ca>.
